

Cell phones should not be allowed for usage on any aircraft. This can create pure CHAOS among the passengers, as well as compromise the safety responsibilities of policing and intervening in aggitated passengers. This is not something that should be supported through any means! The safety and security of our aircraft is the upmost concern. No cell phones!